

Purpose:
To bring together church music faculty from colleges and universities who offer undergraduate church music training.

Goals:

- Foster a sense of community among church music faculty.
- Encourage faculty members who mostly serve as a one-person department.
- Discover and discern ways to recruit more young people to serve the church through music.
- Share ideas and best practices.

Schedule of Events

September 27-29, 2012

Thursday Evening, September 27

6:30 Dinner in Truett Great Hall
7:45 Movie in Truett 107 (Bernie)
10:00 Dismiss for the evening

Friday, September 28

8:45 Worship (Truett Chapel) (Led by Jonathan Hehn, John Kinchen, and Rob Tucker).

9:30 Sessions I & II (Truett 309)

I. "Why What We Do Matters to the Rest of the World"
Swee Hong Lim, Presenter / Tom Webster, Facilitator

II. "The Worship Leader:
Theological Identity and Spiritual Formation"
Rob Hewell, Presenter / Tony Cunha, Facilitator

11:00 Break with refreshments

11:30 Sessions III & IV (Truett 309)

III. "Equipping Students with Modern Skills: Balancing Traditional Standards and Cultural Demands"
Vernon Whaley, Presenter / David Music, Facilitator

IV. "The State of Higher Education and Church Music Curriculum: Meeting Impossible Demands"
Eric Mathis, Presenter / Ron Bowles, Facilitator

1:00 Leave for off-campus lunch (Tony Demaria's)

2:30 Sessions V & VI (Armstrong Browning Library [ABL], Cox Lecture Hall)

V. "Marketing and Recruiting: Where are the students?
How do we find them? How do we engage them?"
Mark Humphrey, Presenter / John Campbell, Facilitator

VI. "Cultivating an Interest in Music and Worship:
Engaging Majors and Non-Majors in the University"
Martha Hicks, Presenter / Allan Miller, Facilitator

4:00 Break with Dr Pepper Floats

4:30 Sessions VII & VIII (ABL, Cox Lecture Hall)

VII. "Meaningful Collaboration: Engaging the University in Transformative Worship Practices"
Bert Polman, Presenter / Clell Wright, Facilitator

VIII. "Is Church Music (as we've known it) Viable?:
Assessing the Future for Young Academics and Practitioners"
Randall Bradley, Presenter / Lee Hinson, Facilitator

6:00 Dinner in Armstrong Browning Library,
Cox Reception Hall

7:30 Dismiss for the evening

Saturday, September 29

8:00 Worship (Truett Chapel) (Led by Bill Davis, Lewis Oswalt, and Emily Snider)

8:45 Sessions IX & X (Truett 309)

IX. "A Wired Campus: Establishing a Philosophy and Pedagogy for Technology in Music and Worship"
Beverly Howard, Presenter / Randy Sheeks, Facilitator

X. "The Best Practices (Open Forum):
What have you done that was successful? What are you proud of? What plans do you have for the future?"
Terry York, Facilitator

10:15 Break with refreshments

10:45 Wrap up and Next Steps
Randall Bradley, Facilitator

12:00 Adjourn